The Hezues R Creative Class (HRCC) will feature friends and colleagues of Hezues R, at the highest level of their respective creative fields. Hezues will interview each guest to share insights into his/her journey, choices, passion, struggles and triumphs.

Set in front of a student and public audience, the series will premier with ANGELO ELLERBEE and his world of public relations. Mr. Ellerbee will talk about his extensive career - from the inspiration for his creative genius to methods of execution. The interview will provide a technical and philosophical education of public relations. Mr. Ellerbee will also sign copies of his highly successful new book, Ask Angelo. This event will be filmed.
